

2016 College of Cross-Cultural and Multidisciplinary Studies Presents

4th IELTS Training Course

The Fourth Training Course for IELTS will be offered in order to improve the English communication skill of students and faculty, and to promote the globalization of Kumamoto University.

The lecture will be given entirely in English by native speakers. Make the most of this opportunity to achieve a higher score.

Period : Monday, February 13 ~ Friday, February 24
2017

Time : 10:00–12:00 every weekday
(10 Sessions including two mock tests)

*Two mock tests scheduled on February 13 and February 24 are the requirement of the course. There will be an official IELTS test in Kumamoto University on March 18. Applicants of the official test can also attend the practice test held between March 13 and 17.

- Location : Building of the College of Cross–Cultural and Multidisciplinary Studies Classroom 1A
  - Capacity: 15 students
  - Fee : Free of charge ( Material for the lecture will be distributed in the class)
  - Contents: Reinforcing four skills of IELTS in order to achieve the score of 6.0
  - Qualifications of applicants:
    1. Full–time students (undergraduate and graduate students), faculty of Kumamoto University
    2. Required to have English communication skills which is equivalent of the 2nd grade of EIKEN or TOEIC official score:600 or TOEFL–iBT score:53.
    3. Those who can take both of the pre and post mock tests on Feb. 13 and 24.
    4. Those who are planning to take the official IELTS exam upon completing the course. ( examination fee must be paid individually)
- Note : There will be a selection based on the motivation if the number of applicants exceed the capacity.

Homework which takes about one hour to complete, may be given in each class.

Deadline for application : Tuesday, January 31, 2017 at 17:00

How to apply: Please submit an application form, which can be downloaded from your portal site, the College website (<http://www.c3.kumamoto-u.ac.jp/en/2421>) or distributed at the following offices:

- The Administrative Office of College of Cross–Cultural and Multidisciplinary Studies (The College Building 1F)
- The international coordinator in the Student Affairs Section, School of Medicine

