

College of Cross-Cultural and Multidisciplinary Studies

Presents

4th Training Course for IELTS

The fourth intensive training course for IELTS will be offered in February. The lecture will be given all in English. It will be a very good opportunity to learn techniques to get higher score of IELTS. Application form is available at the website below.

Period : February 13, Tue. ~ 28th, Wed. 2018
12 lectures in total , Monday to Friday

Two classes will be offered:

Morning class(10:00- 11:30), Afternoon class (13:00 - 14:30)

* Mock tests mandatory for the course ; February 5th and 28th. (Approximately two hours)

- Location : Classroom 1B, Building of the College of Cross-cultural and Multidisciplinary Studies
- Number of admission : 15 per class (Total 30 students)
- Instructors : Mr. Johnson and Mr. Muir
- Fee : Free (Material for the lecture will be distributed in the class)
- Contents : All in English lessons to reinforce the techniques of IELTS to achieve the score 6.0
- Qualification :
 1. Full-time students (undergraduate and graduate students), faculties of Kumamoto University.
 2. English communication skills which is equivalent of the 2nd grade of EIKEN or TOEIC official score:600 or TOEFL-iBT score:53.
 3. Those who can take the mock tests both before and after the course
 4. Those who are planning to take the official IELTS exam once completed the course. (examination fee must be self paid)

Notes : There will be a selection based on the motivation if the number of applicants exceed the capacity.

Homework which takes one or two hours will be given in the class.

Deadline for application : January 31 st, Wed. 2018 17:00

How to apply: Fill out the application form uploaded in the College website: <http://www.c3.kumamoto-u.ac.jp/en/3894> and submit

by email to gji-ryugaku@jimu.kumamoto-u.ac.jp

Contact: Administrative Office of the College of Cross-Cultural and Multidisciplinary Studies Phone: 096-342-2092 email: gji-ryugaku@jimu.kumamoto-u.ac.jp