(5) Japanese Language Trainees (Nihongo Kensyhusei) [N]

Japanese language trainees are students who have passed the examination offered at Japanese embassies of their countries and will enroll in the preparatory six-month Japanese language course.

There are two categories:

- a) Japanese government (Monbukagakusho) scholarship students with embassy recommendations
- b) Teacher-training students

If your Japanese level is elementary (K1-K3), please take Semi-Intensive Japanese Course for Monbukagakusho scholarship students.

If your Japanese lever is intermediate or higher, please consult with a Japanese teacher.

Please note that you cannot earn any credits from Japanese classes.

How to Apply for Japanese Classes

Procedures and deadlines differ depending on student status.

- Undergraduate students and Special Undergraduate Auditors can earn credits for Japanese classes.
 - Undergraduate students [U]

Please register using SOSEKI by April 13 (Tue.)

Special undergraduate auditors [SU-S] (Short-Term Exchange Program)
 Please submit your Class Registration Form to the International Student
 Office by April 8 (Thurs.)

· Special undergraduate auditors [SU]

Please attend the guidance of your faculty.

· Special undergraduate auditors [SU-J]

Please follow the guidance of International Student Office.

Graduate students, Special auditors in graduate school, Japanese Language Trainees, Research students and Others [G, SG, N, R, O]

may audit Japanese classes if space permits but cannot earn credits for these classes.

Please download and fill out the form of Registration for Auditing Japanese Classes from the website of Center for International Education. Then send it to nihongo@kumamoto-u.ac.jp

by April 11 (Sun.)

Attention

- Students who fail to attend the first class without notifying the instructor may be removed from the roster.

How to apply for Japanese

Credit

Regular Students in Undergraduate School [U]

Undergraduate students who need Japanese language course credits for their Compulsory Foreign Language subject requirements should complete the credits required for graduation within their first two years. Even if you take more Compulsory Foreign Language subjects are required, those credits will not count toward your graduation requirements. Credits obtained from Elective Foreign Language subjects will count toward your graduation requirements for elective classes. However, it is not possible to take a course that is a lower level than the result of your placement test.

Special Undergraduate Auditors (SU-S) (SU) (SU-J)

There is no distinction between Compulsory Foreign Language subjects and Elective Foreign Language subjects. Both will count toward your program completion requirements.

Graduate Students, Special Auditors and Special Research Students in Graduate School, Japanese Language Trainees (Nihongo Kensyuu Sei), Undergraduate Reserch Students /
Graduate Research Students [G] [SG] [N] [R] [O]

You may audit courses that correspond to your Japanese level, but you may not receive credit for them.

About Semi-Intensive Japanese Course for Monbukagakusho scholarship students
